

HoGS Special Interest House Off Floor Membership Agreement

Membership in a Special Interest House requires a high standard of excellence on the part of every individual member, whether a new member, an on floor member or an off floor member. All individuals desiring membership in a Special Interest House are requested to sign a membership agreement annually that outlines the standards of conduct, and responsibility of every HoGS member.

- 1) I will read, understand, and follow the policies outlined in the Special Interest House Constitution and the Special Interest House Standards.
- 2) I will attend house meetings, activities and community service events in order to pass evaluations as outlined in the Special Interest House Constitution.
- 3) I will meet my financial obligations in a timely manner.
 - a. I understand that I am responsible for $ 15.00 at the beginning of the year.
 - b. I understand that non-payment of these dues may result in the inability to participate in house events or use house facilities.
- 4) SIH members will not knowingly interfere with the RIT Student Conduct Process and/or any Campus Safety investigations, and will not violate the Terms and Conditions of RIT housing or Students Rights and Responsibilities.
- 5) I will respect my property, the property of others, and the property of RIT; therefore, I will neither abuse nor tolerate the abuse of property.
- 6) I will strive for high academic achievement and will encourage the same academic integrity in others.

I realize that membership in a Special Interest House requires that I accept responsibility to conduct myself in such a way that promotes unity and cooperation, fosters intellectual, professional and personal growth; shows the highest ethical standards and community responsibility. Therefore, I agree to be bound by the membership expectations outlined in this document. I understand that violation of this agreement will result in disciplinary action, up to the suspension of my membership.
